

Sponsored by

The 2019 Headway UK
in North Wales – Betsi
Cadwaladr University
Health Board (BCUHB)
Neurosciences Head
Injury Disease Specific
Advisory Group Annual Conference: 'Science, Art
and Brain Injury
Rehabilitation

The Kinmel Hotel
St George's Road
Abergele LL22 9AS

Wednesday
13 March 2019
9.15am – 4.00pm

Booking

Costs:	Qualified Professionals	£30
	Trainees and Students	£10
	Headway Members	Free
	Brain Injury Survivors plus one family member	Free

Click here to book your place

Headway UK Certificate of Attendance Provided

Who should attend:

- GPs
- Occupational Therapists
- Neurological / Neurorehabilitation Consultants
- Physiotherapists
- Carers
- ABI Survivors and their families
- Speech and Language Therapists
- Case Managers

Benefits of attending:

- Hear about leading-edge developments in the field of treating and managing ABIs
- Network with fellow healthcare professionals, brain injury survivors and their families
- Join the debate on the latest policy change
- Receive a Headway UK Certificate of attendance

Speakers:

- Dr Rhys Davies, (Chair) Consultant Neurologist, The Walton Centre & Ysbyty Gwynedd, Bangor
- Prof Oliver Turnbull, Pro Vice Chancellor (Teaching and Learning), Bangor University
- Dr Ian Turnbull, Former Consultant Neuroradiologist, Greater Manchester Neurosciences Centre (29 years) - and current honorary consultant Neuroradiologist to BCUHB
- Maurice Salt and Lisa Richards, Brain injury survivors and members of Headway Wrexham

Workshop Facilitators:

- Dr Giles Yeates, Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist & Taiji Instructor'
- Leanne Rowlands, PhD Researcher, Bangor University
- Joanna Humphreys, Facilitative Music Therapist, Nordoff Robbins
- Prof John Parkinson, Professor of Behavioural Neuroscience, Head of school, School of Psychology, Bangor University

For more information about this event, please call
Ffion Jones at Headway on 07881 347544